

If You Notice Live Pests on an Object

- Tell a conservator immediately.
- Do not move the object.
- Any infested object and/or container must be bagged before moving to any other location to avoid cross-contamination of collections.
- The area should be thoroughly cleaned afterwards.
- Conservators will identify the pests, evaluate and treat the problem.
- Conservators will document any necessary treatment.